ABOUT US

My Solar Quotes offers a free quote and solar advice service New Zealand-wide, the head office is based in Tauranga, Bay Of Plenty. Operating for over 13 years and helping 36,000+ kiwis find local solar companies.

The website offers a unique service that eliminates hassle by selecting credible solar power installers for all your solar power needs.

My Solar Quotes is an independent service provider that instantly connects customers with up to date and unbiased information on the diverse and rapidly changing solar power industry. Our independence comes from not having to sell any particular solar power system sizes, brands or components, we are not affiliated to any companies. We're 100% owned and operated in New Zealand. Companies signed up to My Solar Quotes must be SEANZ certified members to ensure a standard of excellence in New Zealand's solar power industry.

My Solar Quotes is a no nonsense, solar power quote service built to assist you. Our website is also a rich source of up to date solar power information, information that is both easy to understand and to follow. We are proud to be the number one solar power quote service in New Zealand.

Our Story

The founder, Kristy Hoare, has an Honours degree in Marketing and has worked in the solar power industry for fifteen years. During this time, she discovered the need for an online solar quote service. The service would pass on reputable information and quotes to solar power shoppers. It would also provide solar power installers with quality leads, a win-win for the industry and its supporters. In 2012 the inception of My Solar Quotes had begun.

Kristy is very passionate about the solar industry in New Zealand. The industry has had a few setbacks and no assistance from the Government, unlike other western countries. Kristy uses the website as a voice for people encouraging and helping to grow the amount of solar power in New Zealand.

Kristy speaking on the Installer Panel about business development & resilience at the SEANZ 2024 Conference

Kristy is a director on the board for SEANZ (Sustainable Energy Association New Zealand) the solar industry which aims to drive the industry forward in New Zealand. She regularly writes in the blog about industry issues, latest trends and information to help New Zealanders go solar. Kristy believes that solar power is an ethical business to be in, "solar power is good for the environment and gives the power back to the people."
